Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, sound planning positively impacts a community's livability, ensuring a sense of place where people are proud to live and work; and

WHEREAS, neighborhood and city centers, as well as resident involvement in decision-making, help keep our communities strong, vibrant, and thriving; and

WHEREAS, the annual observance of World Town Planning Day is designed to advance public and professional interest in planning both locally and abroad, while recognizing and promoting the role of planning in creating livable communities.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mark Sanford, Governor of the Great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim November 7, 2003, as throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to work together to ensure the continued improvement and sustainable growth of our communities.
